Jordan: King Husayn has been able to get substantial additional aid from some of his fellow Arabs but has made no progress toward an Arab summit.

Husayn reportedly regards his week-long shopping trip to Iraq, Kuwait, the Persian Gulf Amirates, and Saudi Arabia as a success. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Qatar has indicated that it will help, but has not specified an amount.

25X1

Iraq will make some of its remaining Western arms available to Jordan, because the Iraqi Army is completing converting to Eastern European equipment. [REDACTED]

25X6

[REDACTED] Husayn plans to visit Libya on 29 April and hopes to get more funds there.

The Jordanians have finally abandoned their efforts for an Arab summit conference in the face of continued strong Saudi opposition. The Saudis refuse to be identified with a search for a political solution to the Arab-Israeli impasse, but they have assured Husayn that they will do nothing to oppose Jordanian or Egyptian efforts to this end.
